

Baltimore Gals

[C]Baltimore Gals, won't you come out tonight,
[G]Come out tonight, [C]come out tonight,
Baltimore Gals, won't you come out tonight
And [G]dance by the light of the[C]moon.

[C]As I was walking down the street,
[G]Down the street, [C]down the street,
A pretty little gal I chanced to meet,
Oh, [G]she was fair to [C]see.

[C]Baltimore Gals, won't you come out tonight,
[G]Come out tonight, [C]come out tonight,
Baltimore Gals, won't you come out tonight
And [G]dance by the light of the[C]moon.

[C]I stopped her and we had a talk,
[G]Had a talk, [C]had a talk,
Her feet took up the whole sidewalk
And [G]left no room for [C]me.

[C]Baltimore Gals, won't you come out tonight,
[G]Come out tonight, [C]come out tonight,
Baltimore Gals, won't you come out tonight
And [G]dance by the light of the[C]moon.

[C]I asked her if she'd have a dance,
[G]Have a dance, [C]have a dance,
I thought that I might have a chance
To [G]shake a foot with [C]her.

[C]Baltimore Gals, won't you come out tonight,
[G]Come out tonight, [C]come out tonight,
Baltimore Gals, won't you come out tonight
And [G]dance by the light of the[C]moon.

[C]I danced with a gal with a hole in her stockin',
[G]And her knees kept a-knockin', and her [C]toes kept a-rockin'
I danced with a gal with a hole in her stockin'
And [G]we danced by the light of the[C] moon.

[C]Baltimore Gals, won't you come out tonight,
[G]Come out tonight, [C]come out tonight,
Baltimore Gals, won't you come out tonight
And [G]dance by the light of the[C]moon.
